EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Mr. John Henkhaur (Reg. NO. 42,656) on May 26, 2006.

2. The application has been amended as follows:

Please replace all the claims with the set of corresponding claims in the attachment.

3. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

As to claims 1-35, the prior art of record does not teach or render obvious the limitations recited in claims 1, 11, 21 and 33, when taken in the context of the claims as a whole, specific to at least one of the plurality of modules if from a group consisting of a transformation module that transform, based on an associated module property that specifies a particular one or more XSLT stylesheets specifically for transforming data from the particular compound Web service, an input data structure into an output data structure that is different from the input data structure, a message splitter module that divides, based on an associated module property that specifies a particular one or more XSLT stylesheets specifically for splitting input messages for the particular compound Web service, an input message into a plurality of output messages, and a message merger module that merges, based on an associated module property that specifies a particular one or more XSLT stylesheets specifically for merging output messages associated with the particular compound Web service, a plurality of input messages into a single output message.

Moreover, evidence for modifying the prior art teachings by one of ordinary skill level in the art was not uncovered so as to result in the invention as recited in claims 1, 11, 21 and 33.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
